As the Vice President of Personal Insurance for the Brown & Brown Private Client Group Analise serves as a personal risk advisor consulting with our highly successful clientele and their advisory teams.

She has earned her Chartered Private Risk Insurance Advisor designation and with over a decade of insurance experience uniquely qualifies her to provide guidance to highly successful individuals, multi-generational families and family offices, working together with their teams of advisors to better identify, assess, mitigate and transfer risk. Licensed in all states, with international capabilities she provides the personalized and customized service that gives her clients confidence and peace of mind.

Brown & Brown Insurance, the 6th largest Independent Insurance Agency providing Commercial, Employee Benefits, and Personal Lines Insurance. As a trusted personal risk management consultant, Analise specializes in protecting financially successful families with complex risk profiles; requiring creative solutions on their personal insurance needs. She sees the value in building long-term relationships with clients and their circle of advisors; helping to manage and minimize the uncertainty of losses that can adversely affect client's assets and financial statements.

Analise attended The University of New Mexico for her Undergraduate degree, and later earned her MBA with an emphasis in Leadership from Grand Canyon University. Analise is a third generation Arizona Native, and she prides herself on giving back to her community and focuses on the Empowerment of Women, Education, and the Arts. She currently serves on the Executive Board of Xico Art, a member of the 5 Arts Circle, Contemporary Forum and AZ Costume Institute Contemporary with the Phoenix Art Museum. Analise is honored to be featured in the 2019 & 2021 Phoenix KNOW Book, 100+ women you must know and do business with.
